

The limiting of broadcast ownership is a death knell to democracy. Ownership by just a few gives control of information to the American people which can open the way to facism.

..